

Hon. Dan K. Wilson

PROFILE

Judge Dan Wilson has presided over hundreds of cases in his 16 years as a trial judge. Having a general jurisdiction court has equipped Judge Wilson with a variety of cases in multiple facets of the law.

After Judge Wilson retired in 2022, he has served as a visiting judge in the First Region in several of District Courts, as well as the County Courts at Law. Judge Wilson and his wife Sue enjoy time at their Lake House in Hot Springs, Arkansas, fishing, travel, and spending time with the family.

EXPERIENCE

Visiting Judge, Collin County — 2022-present

As a visiting Judge, Wilson has served in all County Courts at Law in Collin County and in the 471st District Court, 429th District Court, and the 468th District Court.

Judge County Court at Law #5 — 2007-2022

County Court at Law 5 is a court of general jurisdiction, hearing all types of Civil and Criminal Cases within its jurisdictional limits.

Attorney in private practice 1998-2006

Karen C Caton Law Firm

Roach LLP

Dan K. Wilson PC

Deputy Sheriff, Collin County Sheriff's Office 1986-1998

Patrol Deputy, Crime Prevention, Under Cover Narcotics

McKinney Police Officer 1982-1984

Patrol officer, First Responder.

EDUCATION

Princeton High School 1978

East Texas Baptist University 1982

Police Academy 1982

Texas A&M School of Law (formerly Texas Wesleyan School of Law) 1998

SPEAKING/SEMINARS

Speaker for Collin County Bar Association, Panel member for SMU mediation clinic, and Panel member for Texas Center for the Judiciary educational conference.