About the 394th Judicial District

The 394th Judicial District comprises Brewster, Culberson, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis, and Presidio Counties. The District encompasses approx. 20,000 sq. miles (larger than nine states), and includes over 20% of the United States–Mexico border. Judge Ferguson is a general jurisdiction judge, handling all felonies, family law, child welfare cases, real estate, civil disputes, contested guardianships and probates, while supervising adult and juvenile probation and four county auditors. As LADJ, Judge Ferguson promulgates policy for all courts of the five counties, including the indigency plan and pandemic operating plans.

About the Texas Children’s Commission

The Supreme Court established the Children’s Commission in 2007 with the overall goal of improving the child welfare system by increasing public awareness of challenges facing children and families involved in the child welfare system and bringing attention to this important issue through judicial leadership, reforming judicial practice, and informing policy and practice affecting child welfare in Texas. Its mission is to strengthen courts for children, youth and families in the child protection system and thereby improve the safety, permanency, and well-being of children.

About the Champions of Justice Society

The Texas Access to Justice Commission, created by the Supreme Court of Texas in 2001, is charged with developing and implementing initiatives designed to expand access to, and enhance the quality of, justice in civil legal matters for low-income Texans. The Champions of Justice Society is comprised of those attorneys and judges who most strongly support access to justice.

About the Judicial Committee on Information Technology

A part of the Texas Supreme Court’s Texas Commission on Judicial Efficiency, the mission of the JCIT is to establish standards and guidelines for the implementation and integration of technology in Texas courts.

About the Texas Bar Foundation

Founded in 1965, the Texas Bar Foundation has maintained and pursued its mission to assist the public, improve the profession of law, and build a strong justice system for all Texans. Fellows are selected for outstanding professional achievements and demonstrated commitment to improving the Texas justice system. Each year, only one-third of one percent of SBOT members are invited to become Fellows.

About the Texas Bar College

The Texas Bar College is an honorary society of lawyers who are among the best trained attorneys in Texas. Members are qualified attorneys who are interested in both high ethical standards and improved training for all Texas attorneys. The College recognizes those who maintain and enhance their professional skills and the quality of their service to the public by significant voluntary participation in legal education.

“I’m not a cat!”

In February 2021, Judge Ferguson created and published the most-viral video in world history, with a global reach of over three billion people. Yes, the now famous “LawyerCat” hearing occurred in Judge Ferguson’s virtual courtroom. His acclaimed article on the subject, “Viral in a Pandemic,” was published in the ABA Experience Magazine, Sept. 2021.
